

How to Get Here: 45 .06' 276"N 071 .17' 340" E

For GPS users: 45 Stewart Young Road is not listed in many GPS units. Sometimes it is listed as S Young Rd Another option would be to enter "Eastman Road" We have 2 cabins on Eastman Road and you have to drive by the office to get to Eastman Rd. Another hazard to using a GPS is taking Rte 145 out of Colebrook NH. It is a windy road that is not as well maintained as Rte 3. Instead of taking a right onto Rte 145 in Colebrook, just stay on Rte 3 all the way; its not that much longer and a much better road.

From Boston: North on I-93 past Franconia Notch, exit 35 to Route 3 North to Pittsburg.

From Connecticut: North on I-91 to St. Johnsbury, VT then Route 2 East to Lancaster, NH, then Route 3 North to Pittsburg.

From Portland ME: Maine Turnpike North to exit 63, then Route 26 to Colebrook, NH and Route 3 North to Pittsburg.

From Montreal: East on 10 to Magog, South on 55 to Newport, VT, then 111 east to Route 114 North to West Stewartstown, NH to Route 3 North.

Once you're in Pittsburg, NH: Continue on Route 3 North eight miles. We have several signs along Rte 3; the one at Stewart Young Road is where you turn. Watch for our sign on the left about 1 mile past the First Connecticut Lake Dam. We are 350 yards off Route 3 on Stewart Young Road.

Pittsburg New Hampshire is located on the US / Canadian border at the very top of New Hampshire. Drive times from various cities are as follows:

Boston MA	5 hours
Portland ME	4 hours
Burlington VT	3 1/2 hours
Hartford CT	6 hours
Providence RI	5 1/2 hours
Manchester NH	3 1/2 hours
Concord NH	3 hours
Albany NY	7 hours
NYC	7 hours
Somerset NJ	8 hours

Coming from further away? Our recommended airport is Manchester, NH (MHT). From there we are 3 1/2 hours away. Manchester is a nice airport and getting a car rental is easy as is accessibility. Other choices would include Burlington, VT (3 1/2 hours), Montreal, Quebec (2 1/2 hours), or Portland Maine (4 hours). Logan airport in Boston Mass (5 hours) is the preferred airport for international travel.
